

The Atlanta Journal
Covers Dixie Like the Dew

P.O. BOX 4689 · ATLANTA, GA. 30302

Mr. Leo Conroy
Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
275 Peachtree N.E.
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Mr. Conroy:

[redacted] suggested that I send this to you since it was mailed the day that a Samuel Byck attempted to hijack an Atlanta-bound plane. We realize that if his name was released in the Philadelphia area during the day, someone could have used it, but we were puzzled as to why it might have been mailed to us. Perhaps you have access to samples of the real Byck's handwriting. Incidentally, [redacted] and myself have both handled this letter.

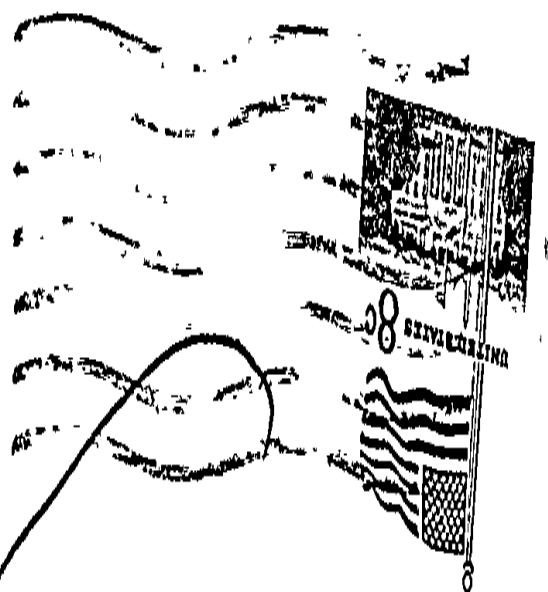

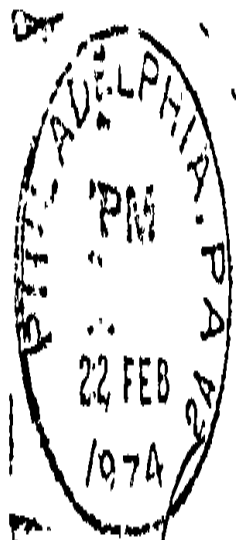

b6
b7c

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Editorial Associate

Atlanta Journal

ATLANTA JOURNAL

ATLANTA GEORGIA

IT HAS BECOME EVIDENT TO ME
THAT THIS GOVERNMENT (ONE THAT I LOVE - DEARLY) WILL NOT RESPOND TO THE NEEDS OF THE MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN CITIZENS.

THE MAJORITY OF PEOPLE IN GOVERNMENT (SO-CALLED PUBLIC SERVANTS)
ARE FINANCED BY SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS AND IF THEY ARE SERVANTS,
THEY ARE SERVANT TO THESE GROUPS.

NOW IS THE TIME! FOR INDEPENDENT
MINDED CITIZENS TO TAKE BACK THEIR GOVERNMENT BEFORE THEIR GOVERNMENT TAKES COMPLETE CONTROL OF US ALL.

I, FOR ONE, WILL NOT LIVE IN A CONTROLLED SOCIETY AND I
WOULD RATHER DIE AS A FREE-MAN.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE
SAM R. DYCK