

APPENDIX.

HOME SERVICE.

RECORD OF PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS
FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH =-----
F E A T U R E S A N D D R A M A

March 6	Farming	An aspect of the Scottish Home Front.
March 8	Norway	A revised edition of D.G.Bridson's programme about Norway and its customs.
March 12	The Spirit of Austria	A broadcast on the anniversary of the fall of Vienna.
March 17	The Irish Guards	The history of a famous Regiment.
March 19	"These Strangers within our Gates"	Interviews with foreigners settled in Wales.
March 22	The Scottish Country	The Scottish countryside and the changing conditions of work described by people who live and work there.
March 22	International Red Cross	An outline of its history and work.
March 24	Resurgam	An Easter Day programme showing the indestructible spirit of the Polish people, and foretelling Poland's eventual resurrection.
March 25	Shetland	A broadcast dealing with life and work on the Shetlands, mainly by interviews with the Islanders.
March 27	Women on the Land	A broadcast from Wales in the Home Front series, dealing with the Women's Land Army.
March 28	I am a Jew	The tragedy of a Jewish professor and his family under Nazi rule, translated from the German of Georg Andreas.
March 29	Miss King	A dramatisation of one of the "ASHENDEN" stories of the British Secret Service, by Somerset Maugham.
March 30	Aircraft in Production	The story of the building of an aeroplane, from its conception in the minds of the designers to its delivery to the Royal Air Force.
March 30	The Old County - Yorkshire	The patriotic reactions of both town and countrymen to the war.

= That for the month of April was not compiled in time for the reports.